REGISTERS A VIGOROUS PROTEST

Under the caption of "Petty Jealousy," the St. Augustine Record, of the 22d, takes exceptions to an article which appeared in the Daily News some days previous in which it was said the Ancient City was jogging along in a comparatively quiet way, and that the inhabitants of the ancient burg were anything but optomistic in regard to the coming season. The Daily News quoted one of Daytona's most prominent citizens, and could, had it been so minded, quoted a dozen tourists and commercial travelers to the same effect, but as Daytona feels very kindly toward St. Augustine and disclaims any intention of misrepresenting her, or of drowning a single straw of impediment in her way toward greater glory, the Daily News charitably refrained from going into details, and dismissed the subject with no statement more serious than that St. Augustine is quieter than Pinewood. Now watch the St. Augustine Record pull its hair, and give out editorious vagaries.

"President Roosevelt has overlooked Daytona in forming his American Club, but his oversight is pardonable as he has probably never heard of the little village to the south of us. According to the Daily News of that town, St. Augustine is not sleeping, but dead. The following is clipped from Tuesday's issue of the daily mentioned, Daytona being lively enough to support a daily three or four months in certain years."

* * * [Here he quotes from the Daily News.]

"If * * * has been quoted correctly he is eligible for a foremost place in the Ananias Club; if not, the editor of the "dis y" deserves that honor. St. Augustine at midnight has more life than Daytona on a gala day. The petty spirit of our jealous little neighbor is more deserving of condemnation than the deliberate falsehood. This city is enjoying its usual harvest of winter visitors, surpassing last year by a very healthy lead, and if the records are thronged day and night. Residents of St. Augustine may have some justifiable jealousy of other resort towns as not one of them. This city, the queen resort of the South, can afford to be generous, and the people of this city invariably set a good example for Daytona on all occasions. The newspapers of Daytona, presumably voicing the sentiment of that town, give abundant evidence of their hospitality to St. Augustine, and all other towns of which the clipping is a sample."

The attempted sarcasm in the statement that Daytona is lively enough to support a daily during the tourist season now and then loses its sting when the reader is informed that it is current report and general belief from Jacksonville to Miami that the Record is one of the log interest's "theater" sheets, published, whether run at a loss or a

RACE GETTING INTERESTING

HALIFAX RIFLES MAKE GAIN.

Outside of Daytona The Fur Is Beginning To Fly—Miss Stewart Withdraws.

The count on Saturday night in the Bush & Safford piano contest shows that just who the winner is going to be is very indefinite right now, either in Daytona or outside of Daytona.

In Daytona the High School is far ahead, of course, but the Halifax Rifles are steadily gaining. This time they made a gain of over 6,000. At that rate they will catch the High School before March. Besides that there was nothing new of interest.

Outside of Daytona the race is getting hotter every day. Wilmans Opera House is still in the lead but several contestants made game on it this time. The Seabreeze High School, the M. E. parsonage, Daytona Beach school and the Kingston school all came a little nearer. A noticeable thing in the last few counts has been the rapid strides taken by the Kingston school. From almost last, a very few days ago, it has come rapidly to the front, now being but a few behind the Seabreeze High School.

Miss Lillian F. Stewart, of Daytona Beach, wishes to announce her withdrawal from the race and wishes it known that hereafter she will work for the M. E. parsonage, Daytona Beach. She wishes that her friends would do the same.

When voting the ballots people should be careful of several things. When possible, write plain, and do not vote the ballots on the back, for they may be thrown away as blanks. A number of blanks are found in the ballot boxes every day. When voting for schools be careful to say which school you wish your ballots counted for. Remember, there are six schools in the race: the Daytona High School, the Ormond School, the Kingston School, the Daytona Institute and the Colored Industrial School.

I would, if elected to the office of Mayor, give the public an account of the city's standing, and would give an accounting monthly, showing how much and where the city's money was spent.

I would favor good streets.

I am for all improvements that will entermin the tourist.

I would be in favor of encouraging capitalists to come to Daytona.

I am for better drainage, believing it would make Daytona one of the best shipping points for vegetables, as well as bettering our sanitary conditions.

I believe that every tax payer should have some benefit for the money.

I would, if elected to the office of Mayor, have all orders and ordinances published in our newspapers. It would give every one a chance to know just what the ordinances are before their passage. Believing that the public should know fully the actions of municipal officers. It would also help our newspapers, for we are judged almost by our home papers, which are one of our best advertising mediums, and without them no city can prosper.

As Mayor I would insist myself acquainted with the needs of the City, so as to be able to properly make my reports to the Council.

I am in favor of a low graduated license tax to read as follows: All persons not having paid their license tax within sixty days after being the chief gave a license tax of, Hank. Cline, I believe, would protect our rights. Respectfully, Life Saving and Law.

The humanitarian are as curious in some things as the Chinese. A girl who fell into the river and was swept down by the current finally caught a limb on the bank and drew herself to safety. The owner of the land on which the limb grew immediately claimed a reward of 4 shillings because his bush was there and had saved her. Her father refused to pay, and there was a lawsuit. What the law has to decide is whether drowning people can make use of bushes on the bank without paying for the same or whether the ownership of the said bush is worth a certain sum of money.

In China if a person falls into the water no one must help him out, but at the same time a spectator can be interrogated for not advising the victim to keep on dry land.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Carrying 1361 passengers of the wrecked White Star liner, Republic, and the damaged Italian liner, Florida, the steamer Baltic came into port at noon today. She landed her passengers in half an hour. The Baltic also had life and members of the crew of the Republic numbering 300.

The Florida, with her bow smashed in, reached Ambrose lightship, proceeding under her own steam.

When the Republic went down last night it carried the bodies of Mrs. Eugene Lynch, of Boston, and W. J. Mooney, of Langdon, N. D.

NANTUCKET, Mass., Jan. 25.—The rescue of Capt. Sealby and his men when the Republic went down was extremely dramatic. The captain had declared he would not desert his ship. Revenue cutters stood by in tossing the disabled steamer and the remainder of the crew were taken from the foundering vessel. Sealby told that the ship was sinking and remained on the bridge until the water struck his ankles. When the vessel sank the captain and mate were thrown into the water but were quickly picked up by 25-boats and taken aboard the revenue cutter Gresham.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Alonzo H. Baltz, anchored to Ambrose channel, Captain Ransom said: "All aboard are doing well although many are still suffering from nervous shock."

S. J. Hoover, of Spokane, Wash., a passenger, said: "Nearly everybody was asleep when the crash came; all ran to the deck in their night clothes. Captain Sealby made a speech, reassuring many. The scenes on the Florida were harrowing. Italian emigrants who had just escaped from the earthquake, in terror knelt in prayer on the decks. Women were screaming but there was no wild rush."

Mr. Hoover and his wife had started on a tour of the world and will continue their journey on the next steamer.

DAYTONA'S GOOD SHOWING.

The Third Annual Report of Dr. Stewart, Health Officer, Very Gratifying.

DEATH RATE IS VERY SMALL.

All citizens, whether permanent or transient guests of the city, will be interested in the third annual report of the health officer, Dr. E. L. Stewart, which is ready for presentation to the city fathers. The evidence is not wanting to show that Dr. Stewart is abundantly justified in making his statements positive and unequivocal. Here is the report as prepared for presentation at the meeting of the City Council tonight:

ANNUAL REPORT.

Daytona, Jan. 25, 1909.

To the Honorable City Council of Daytona:

Gentlemen.—I have the honor to make my annual report as follows:

Reported births for 1908, whites, 28; colored, 8; total, 36.

Reported deaths for 1908, whites, 23; colored, 8; total, 31.

It is well to note that two of these deaths were from accident. And it is worthy of note that only six deaths are charged up to Tuberculosis.

This report, you must understand, takes in ALL of the deaths in this city. It is to a very remarkable, as to have our population more than doubled in the season. This extra population is made up of people seeking health and yet, with all of this we can show a no only nominal death rate.

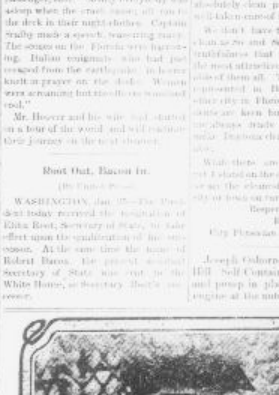
With pure water, splendid drainage, miles of paved streets, and a wide awake citizenship, today there is no place on earth that can hold out the greater inducements to the tourist in search of pleasure or health than Daytona can. Look at the sewerage system, the magnificent system, the basket system, the absolutely clean purchases, the splendid, well-taken-care-of homes!

We don't have to say we are most as clean as we are and So." We can say with confidence that we are the cleanest, the most attractive, and the most desirable of them all. There is more wealth represented in Daytona than in any other city in Florida. Our winter residents are keen business people. They are always ready to do their part to make Daytona cleaner and more desirable.

With there are other things to do, and I submit to the criminal proposition—or as the cleanest and most desirable city on long on earth.

Respectfully,
E. L. STEWART,
City Physician and Health Officer.

Joseph Osborne today installed a 1911 Self Contained electric motor and pump in place of the hot air engine at the automobile club house.



LADY AUCKLAND, WHO WILL WRITE OF AMERICAN SOCIETY.

The society set on Newport is waiting with keen interest for Lady Auckland's "impressions," which she will write on her return to England after her recent visit to this country. Lady Auckland could find little to comment in America's resort as when she was interviewed by New York newspaper reporters, and if she puts in her book these things which are lifted as as being impressed her most in her intercourse with some of the wealthy Americans it may cause a sensation.

All citizens, whether permanent or transient guests of the city, will be interested in the third annual report of the health officer, Dr. E. L. Stewart, which is ready for presentation to the city fathers. The evidence is not wanting to show that Dr. Stewart is abundantly justified in making his statements positive and unequivocal. Here is the report as prepared for presentation at the meeting of the City Council tonight:

ANNUAL REPORT.

Daytona, Jan. 25, 1909.

The Honorable City Council of Daytona:

Gentlemen.—I have the honor to make my annual report as follows:

Reported births for 1908, whites, 26; colored 4; total 30.

Reported deaths for 1908, whites, 23; colored, 8; total, 31.

It is well to note that two of these deaths were from accident. And it is worthy of note that only six deaths are charged up to Tuberculosis.

This report, you must understand, takes in ALL of the deaths in this city. It is in a way remarkable, as we have our population more than doubled in the season. This extra population is made up of people seeking health and yet, with all of this we can show a merely nominal death rate.

With pure water, splendid drainage, miles of paved streets, and a wide awake citizenship, today there is no place on earth that can hold out the genuine inducements to the tourist in search of pleasure or health than Daytona can. Look at the sewerage system, the cesspool system, the bucket system, the absolutely clean parkages, the splendid, well-taken-care-of homes!

We don't have to say we are most as clean as So and So." We can say with truthfulness that we are the cleanest, the most attractive, and the most desirable of them all. There is more wealth represented in Daytona than in any other city in Florida. Our winter residents are keen business people. They are always ready to do their part to make Daytona cleaner and more desirable.

While there are other things to do, yet I stand on the original proposition—we are the cleanest and most desirable city or town on earth.

Respectfully,

E. L. STEWART,
City Physician and Health Officer.

Joseph Osborne today installed a Hill Self-Contained elecric motor and pump in place of the hot air engine at the automobile club house.

LADY AUCKLAND, WHO WILL WRITE OF AMERICAN SOCIETY.

The society set at Newport is waiting with keen interest for Lady Auckland's "Impressions," which she said she would write on her return to England after her recent visit to this country. Lady Auckland could find little to commend in America's smart set when she was interviewed by New York newspaper reporters, and if she puts in her book those things which she hinted at as having impressed her most in her intercourse with some of the wealthier Americans it may cause a sensation.

Mrs. W. A. Baggett is at home again after a three days' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Perkins, on Ridgewood avenue.

Mrs. S. L. Gilmore has been under Dr. Evenden's care for the past week with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism in her right hand.

Mrs. Ada A. Stewart, who is now at Chattanooga, Tenn., has sold her cottage, at the corner of Earl and Valley streets, to J. B. Jones, of Connersville, Ind., through A. L. Miller. Mr. Jones contemplates making numerous improvements on the place.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Filer, of Ada, Ohio, arrived last Friday from the North, and have taken apartments at the A. Budgen home, on Pinewood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Paine, of Greenfield, Mass., friends of Miss Winifield Peirson, left yesterday, after a few days delightfully spent at the hotel. This is their bridal trip South, and Mr and Mrs Paine were so well pleased with our City Beautiful that they hope to repeat the visit next season.

Mrs. Clara Allen and son, Roger, who have spent many winters at The Clarendon, will not come South this winter, owing to business hindrances. They keep up their interest in Seabreeze and The Clarendon, however, and in order to keep posted send in their subscription to the Daily News.

Mrs. J. Bianchi, who has a real genius for beautiful fancy work, will have a table at the Congregational church bazaar, for which she already has on hand many dainty and attractive articles, and numerous others in the course of construction.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hatch and friends of Ypsilanti, Martin L. Dawson and Mr. Carryell, had a pleasant auto drive to DeLand, Saturday.

Mrs. Charles C. Pratt, wife of State Senator Pratt, of Pennsylvania, arrived from Millonia Pa., Saturday, and is a guest at the Princess Issena. Mrs. Pratt was accompanied by her daughter, Helen L. Pratt, and mother, Mrs. H. H. Goit, of Binghamton, N. Y.

A party from The Princess Issena, composed of Mesdames Egly and Doll and Miss Doll, and Messrs. Sawyer and Jackson joined the excursionists on the trip to the Tomoka, Saturday.

Mrs. Robinson and friend, Miss Stone, of Toronto, Canada, arrived last week, and are pleasantly located with Mrs. Davis, on Halifax avenue.*

DAYTONA BEACH, Jan. 25.—A Vandeveer is laying quite an extensive sidewalk on South Palmetto avenue. Beside his own property, a walk will be laid along Mr. Bozel's and C. H. Wilson's property, adjoining and north of Mr. Vande Vende's grounds. This will mark the beginning of sidewalk laying on Palmetto avenue.

On North Palmetto avenue E. E. Austin's new cottage has been completed. It is a very complete four-room, one-story bungalow, modern in improvements, and attractively set in a grove of pines. Mr. and Mrs. Austin plan to take possession today. By the way, the cottage is named Maine, which will remind the pioneers by that we are a very cosmopolitan people.

Mrs. Roberts and sister, Miss Hubbell, had a pleasant boat trip down the river Saturday.

Mrs. M. Brooks, while bathing in the surf just below the pier Saturday morning, had the misfortune to lose a ring she prized very highly. It had a garnet set and was a family heirloom.

W. L. Hibbard and family, of Walworth, Wis., are visiting his brother, E. C. Hibbard and wife, on Live Oak avenue. W. L. Hibbard and family are on their way to a recently purchased home at Fort Pierce. They leave today for that point.

Mr. Specht returned Saturday from a trip to the county seat.

A special meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society was called at the home of Mrs. E. C. Hibbard Friday night, for the purpose of electing a president to fill Mrs. Parsons' unexpired time, and any other business that might come up. Mrs. E. C. Hibbard, first vice president, was elected president, and Mrs. Barre was elected vice president. It was decided at this meeting, to hold open or social meeting every two weeks at evening session and extend an invitation to the gentlemen.

Miss Grace Keating has returned from Jacksonville. Mrs. Keating and youngest daughter have gone to Ocala where they will visit with the former's son, R. L. Keating.

Two hunting parties will organize this week to hunt on the St. Johns River. J. L. Wilcox will have the parties in charge.

The household Dakota, which was advertised for sale in the Daily News, was sold by Dr. Pierce to Robert Smith, of New York City, who is having some work done on it and expects to get it in the water soon. Mr. Smith and wife have been stopping at the Bee Hive Block (Orvis), Daytona, but expect to spend the rest of the season cruising the waters of Florida. Mr. Smith says he is not a water man but thinks he can manage the household and the launch, which he included in the purchase of the household.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin plan to take possession today. By the way the cottage is named Maine, which will remind the passers-by that we are a very cosmopolitan people.

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphalt-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater beyond wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pay for a fat mullet, and that fish hawk straggling upward with his floundering load be snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spirk and span, their bumpers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid as: liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading arches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage-homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has enshielded as no artist's brush ever could, and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines running riot in the trees; see the cryptogamous forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of the Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every nurnre of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon, and in the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that dicits attention, which as they are models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that give a supreme charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as wonder number four.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margin of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard-of pinoe reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eye callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, sooty glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where

Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard none of variegated hues predominate, another household have a penchant for the poinsettia and the jasmines are alluring; another is hidden in a jungle of tall canas. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits. Daytona yields the palm in zone for quality and quantity per acre. There are acres of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, pendulence and all desirable qualities would truly astonish.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Tuskaloosa and you will be "clowned." Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure orbicular water from the thousand flowing wells in a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower up to a 200-horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is an fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled. It will charm and hold you. Come and see.

A party of automobilists was touring through Virginia. An accident to the engine forced them to take a train home. As they walked down the road seeking some one from whom they could inquire their way they met an old darkey, says the Sunday Magazine.

"Sho'ly, sir," he responded. "Keep right straight down dis road 'till you gets to where two and fouah branches wit. Den yo' take de lef' one an' keep on a-goin' till yo' gets to where de nex' possibilities enter in."

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona s crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican perch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see th climbing vines runn ng riot in the trees; see the cryptogamons forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that give a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as wonder number four.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where

Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variagated hues predominate, another household have a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Varietv is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Timbuktoo and you will be "shown." Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower up to a 200-horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

The Way to the Station.

A party of automobilists was touring through Virginia. An accident to the car forced them to take a train home. As they walked down the road seeking some one from whom they could inquire their way they met an old darky, says the Success Magazine.

"Will you kindly direct us to the railroad station?" one of the party asked.

"Cert'n'y, sir," he responded. "Keep a-goin' right down dis road till yo' gets to where two mo' roads branches out. Den yo' take de lef' one an' keep on a-goin' till yo' gets to where de ole postoffice uster be."

Creative.

A certain man coming from abroad was taken up by the smart set.

"We'll make a lion of him," quoth they, "for the distinction he will therupon reflect upon us."

But the man was too little. It takes much material to make a lion.

"Then we'll make a monkey of him," said the smart set, determined to have some exercise for their creative genius.

Nor was the world the worse off. For, after all, it is the contribution to the gayety of nations that is especially needed.—Puck.

Animal Instinct.

A friend of mine saw two cats approaching each other on the top of a board fence. There was no room for them to pass each other, and he wondered what would happen. When they were near each other one of them stopped, turned around and retreated till it came to another board fence that joined at right angles the one they were on. The cat stepped off on this fence and waited there till the other went by. My friend thought this act showed an appreciation of the problem beyond the reach of instinct. No doubt these cats had met before, and one was master of the other. What more natural than that the defeated cat should retreat before the superior and when it came to the other fence step off upon it and let the victor pass? The action involved no mental process any more than when two burrs bother in motion meet each other and one gives way. There was no other course open to the cat. If she or he had turned back and taken to the side fence solely to accommodate the other cat, why, that were another matter.

The Gordon setter that met a train of cars upon a railroad bridge and stepped down upon one of the timbers of the bridge and stood there while the train passed gave no proof of reasoning powers. It was the only thing the dog could do. Nearly all animals know enough to get out of the way of danger. If they did not, what would become of the race of animals?—John Burroughs in Outing Magazine.

Externally.

The Doctor—You understand, don't you, that this is only to be used externally? The Patient's Wife—Sure, sir. I allus make him get out of bed to drink it!—London Scraps.

It is better to hope and to work than to grumble and quarrel and shirk.—Baltimore American.

gain, per se, to help keep up appearances and leg for certain interests. With this syndicate of papers it isn't a question of merit, it isn't a question of the survival of the fittest; they take no thought for the morrow, wherewith fed and clothed, the wherewithal for their sustenance is forthcoming.

The Daily News is more than willing for the tourist public and for the commercial traveler to decide whether St Augustine is livelier at midnight than Daytona on a gala day, in fact whether she is livelier at any stage of the game and, apropos of the statement of St. Augustine's superiority, who is the Ananias, the Record or the Daily News. This paper is willing to concede that the Record editor is better authority on "midnight life," but for sun-lit hours when honest folk are supposed to be up and doing, the Daily News will have to be shown.

All that Pharisaical cant about your generosity, your queen city, etc., as compared with Daytona's jealousy, niggardliness, etc., is as sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal, it signifies nothing. Your folks are clay just like the folks down this way, no better, no worse.

In dismissing the subject the Daily News will quote another "Ananias" a citizen of Jensen, Fla., who came down from St. Augustine, after a few days visit at your port, to his homefront. His testimony was that he saw more evidences of life and push here in an hour (day time) than he saw in the Ancient City in a week. Now let the Nocturnal prowler hit right and left into the circumambient atmosphere.

The Navel Orange.

For a product of nature a California navel orange as it graces the breakfast table or the posh cart is about the most artificial thing in the world. It is also a very striking illustration of the fact that while beauty may be only skin deep it counts for a whole lot. To begin with, the navel orange of California is an exotic, reaching its present habitat after tireless wandering. And, be it ever so sweet tasting, if its skin has had its beauty marred it scarcely ever gets farther than the orchard where it grew. Not only that, but even the most comely ones before they are boxed and shipped are brushed by machinery and polished and otherwise fussed with to give them a beauty which mere nature never would have provided.—William R. Stewart in Technical World.

Ignorance Not Bliss.

"There is a certain gnawing uncertainty about calling on people who speak a different language from their servants," remarked the woman who does. "You can never tell whether they are saying, 'Make another cup of tea, Katie, I have company,' or 'She always drops in about tea time, confound her! Pour some more hot water in the pot.'"—New York Press.

Saw For Himself.

A man carrying a looking glass said to a newsboy, "Come here and look into this glass and you will see a donkey."

"How did you find that out?" retorted the boy.—London Express.

Opposites Often Wed.

"Miss, you are a soldier. Nobody will ever care to marry a boisterous girl."

"Don't worry, mother. I'll find some nice, gentlemanly boy."—Simon (Tex.) Journal.

Animal Instinct.

A friend of mine saw two cats approaching each other on the top of a board fence. There was no room for them to pass each other, and he wondered what would happen. When they were near each other one of them stopped, turned around and retreated till it came to another board fence that joined at right angles the one they were on. The cat stepped off on this fence and waited there till the other went by. My friend thought this act showed an appreciation of the problem beyond the reach of instinct. No doubt those cats had met before, and one was master of the other. What more natural than that the defeated cat should retreat before the superior and when it came to the other fence step off upon it and let the victor pass? The action involved no mental process any more than when two inert bodies in motion meet each other and one gives way. There was no other course open to the cat. If she or he had turned back and taken to the side fence solely to accommodate the other cat, why, that were another matter.

The Gordon setter that met a train of cars upon a railroad bridge and stepped down upon one of the timbers of the bridge and stood there while the train passed gave no proof of reasoning powers. It was the only thing the dog could do. Nearly all animals know enough to get out the way of danger. If they did not, what would become of the race of animals?—John Burroughs in Outing Magazine.

Externally.

The Doctor—You understand, don't you, that this is only to be used externally? The Patient's Wife—Sure, sir, I allus makes him get out o' bed to drink it!—London Scraps.

It is better to hope and to work than to grumble and quarrel and shirk.—Baltimore American.

gain, per se, to help keep up appearances and leg for certain interests. With this syndicate of papers it isn't a question of merit, it isn't a question of the survival of the fittest; they take no thought for the morrow, wherewith fed and clothed; the wherewithal for their sustenance is forthcoming.

The Daily News is more than willing for the tourist public and for the commercial traveler to decide whether St. Augustine is livelier at midnight than Daytona on a gala day, in fact whether she is livlier at any stage of the game and, apropos of the statement of St. Augustine's superiority, who is the Ananias, the Record or the Daily News. This paper is willing to concede that the Record editor is better authority on "midnight life," but for sun-lit hours when honest folk are supposed to be up and doing, the Daily News will have to be shown.

Allthat Pharisaical cant about your generosity, your queen city, etc, as compared with Daytona's jealousy, niggardliness, etc., is as sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal, it signifies nothing. Your folks are clay just like the folks down this way, no better no worse.

In dismissing the subject the Daily News will quote another "Ananias," a citizen of Jensen, Fla., who came down from St. Augustine, after a few days visit at your port, in his houseboat. His testimony was that he saw more evidence of life and push here in an hour (day time) than he saw in the Ancient City in a week. Now let the Nocturnal prowler hit right and left into the circumambient atmosphere.

The Navel Orange.

For a product of nature a California navel orange as it graces the breakfast table or the push cart is about the most artificial thing in the world. It is also a very striking illustration of the fact that while beauty may be only skin deep it counts for a whole lot. To begin with, the navel orange of California is an exotic, reaching its present habitat after devious wandering. And, be it ever so sweet tasting, if its skin has had its beauty marred it scarcely ever gets farther than the orchard where it grew. Not only that, but even the most comely ones before they are boxed and shipped are brushed by machinery and polished and otherwise fussed with to give them a beauty which mere nature never would have provided.—William R. Stewart in Technical World.

Ignorance Not Bliss.

"There is a certain gnawing uncertainty about calling on people who speak a different language from their servants," remarked the woman who does. "You can never tell whether they are saying, 'Make another cup of tea, Katie; I have company,' or 'She always drops in about tea time, confound her! Pour some more hot water in the pot.'"—New York Press.

Saw For Himself.

A man carrying a looking glass said to a newsboy, "Come here and look into this glass and you will see a donkey."

"How did you find that out?" retorted the boy.—London Express.

Opposites Often Wed.

"Miss, you are a holden. Nobody will ever care to marry a boisterous girl."

"Don't worry, mother. I'll find some nice, gidisterous boy."—Kansas City Journal
